Vennard College

Annuet Coeptis

God has favored our undertakings

E Pluribus Unum

Vennard College has the uniqueness in the motto "E Pluribus Unum" (out of many, one). Out of the many philosophies of education today comes one, the Vennard concept of a Bible-centered, Spirit-filled program of education. Out of the many goals of education today, comes one, Vennard's goal of preparing youth to serve with a life dedicated to Christ. Out of the many demands for service comes one commission, World Evangelism. Out of the many needs of the world comes Vennard's one answer—Christ.

The History
Vennard College was founded in 1910 as Chicago Evangelistic Institute by Dr. Iva Durham Vennard, who served faithfully the interests of the school until her death in 1945. Under her able administration the school became known throughout the world for its thoroughness of Christian training, and its distinctive witness to Wesleyan interpretation of the experience of entire sanctification.

Vennard's Heritage

H. M. Couchenour 51-58

In 1959 the name of the school was changed to Vennard College, in honor of its founder and first president. With the same doctrinal emphasis, Vennard endeavors to cultivate a deep spiritual experience in its students, a discipline in culture and courtesy, and a thorough educational training.

J. S. Logan 58-67

After forty-one years of rich ministry in the city of Chicago, the college moved to University Park, Iowa, in the summer of 1951, thus providing the school with an adequate operating plant on a beautiful seventy-five acre campus previously occupied by Kletzing College, John Fletcher College, and Central Holiness University. Campus buildings consist of two dormitories, administration building, gymnasium, fine arts building, central heating plant, and president's home. There are several off campus residences and a one hundred acre farm.

Vennard Inaugurates a President

The election of Dr. Merne Arthur Harris as the fifth president of Vennard College ended a search for a successor to J. Sutherland Logan that continued for a period of several months. Not surprisingly the search led back to the Vennard Faculty, ending in the choice of academic dean.

. . . Dr. Harris maintains his basic commitment as an academician, for he calls for three expressions of freedom in the Vennard academic program—"freedom of conscience, conviction, and conquest."

Decisive Decade

THREE PHASES:

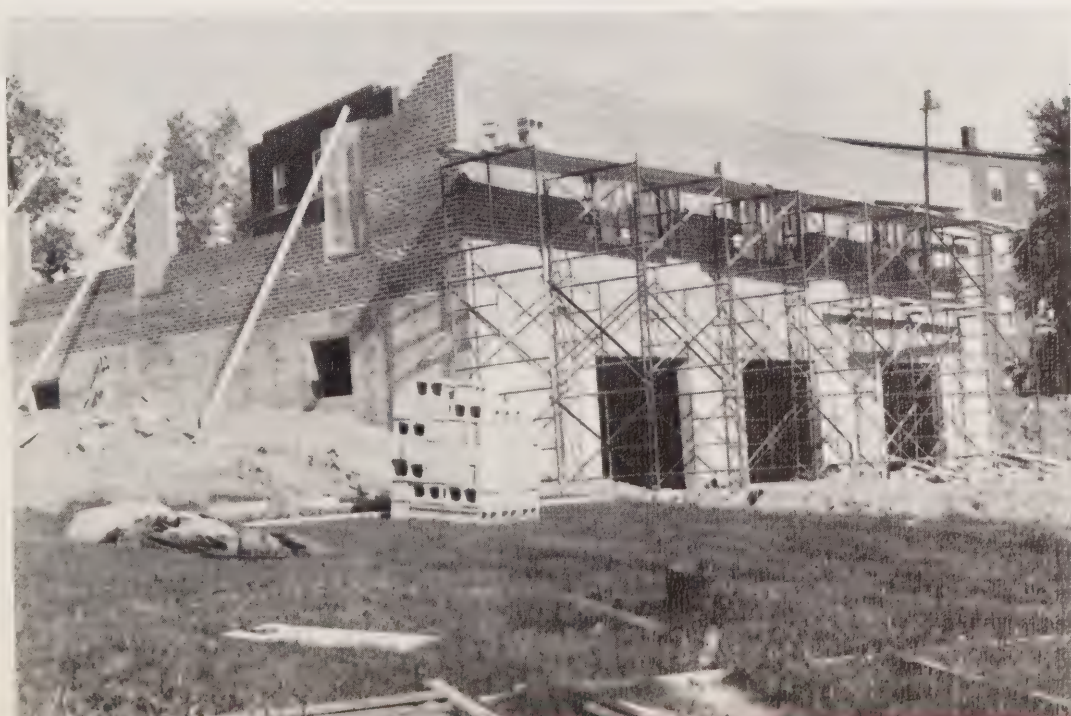

1. The Stabilization Of Our Current Program involving an adequate financial support for our operational budget—The appointment of additional faculty members to serve our growing student body—The employment of new service personnel to operate our growing college.
2. A systematic program of planned maintenance for the properties we now possess—The Renovation of Every Building On The Campus In Order To Efficiently use the space we now have—Constructively use the space vacated after new buildings have been constructed.
3. The Construction Of Five New Buildings Involving Four Stages.

The study for Salvation Army youth provides general education courses which serve to give a broadened view of the world and its peoples whom the candidate seeks to serve.

The Bible Certificate is available to those who wish to prepare for more useful service in lay activity in the church. It also serves as a refresher course to those who have been in full-time Christian service.

The activities of college life are various and involved. Many of the valuable experiences and lessons learned at college come while outside the classroom during the long hours of study, work, service and recreation. Without this aspect, college life is drab and unrewarding. It is also in this area that one can witness the Lord's working in the lives of fellow students and in themselves.

Organizations and Activities

Every student is involved in many campus activities or organizations from the moment he becomes a Vennardian. The opportunity for fun, fellowship, and service is provided by the many class activities and organizations.

Provides Social Experiences

Merne A. Harris, Ph.D.
President

Dear Vennardian:

As a member of the Vennard College student body of 1968-69 you have been part of a number of historic firsts at our school.

You witnessed completion of CEI—Vennard's FIRST NEW BUILDING in more than 40 years.

You helped launch the FIRST DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM in recent years. Known to you as the Decisive Decade the College's program of advance has already resulted in many improvements to our facilities and significant progress toward the remodeling of the Men's Dormitory.

The FIRST ATHLETIC FIELD ever to be available at the College was begun during this busy year at Vennard. Under the leadership of your Student Government the whole project was given a good start in the preparation of the area and the construction of such recreational facilities as a miniature golf course, archery range, and combination softball, foot-ball, soccer field.

You have helped make my FIRST year as Vennard's President immensely rewarding.

And so we have shared the excitement and the challenge of new endeavors which have made this a memorable year indeed.

Undoubtedly, there have been other "firsts" for you at Vennard as you have encountered the spiritual, academic, and social life opportunities so typical of this school. In fact, that's what life—especially the Christian life—is really all about; an unending panorama of the new, the exciting, and the challenging.

The Latin terms which have been selected as the theme of the 1969 Vision are borrowed from the obverse and reverse of the Great Seal of America. E Pluribus Unum, written on the scroll held in the eagle's beak is adopted from the Latin concept of the salad. As the several vegetables and seasonings were united to make one salad the phrase "out of many, one" was established. The Continental Congress in 1782 adopted the term E Pluribus Unum for the official impression of the United States Great Seal because of its significance in uniting thirteen states into one Union. Annuet Coeptis on the reverse signifies the presence of God in the founding of the original states, the term meaning "He (God) has favored our undertakings."

In a year of increasing national concern for political and social change and improvement, the election of a new United States president, and even on a closer level the inauguration of a new Vennard College president, the patriotic theme seems both proper and Spirit-led. Vennard College unites the three dimensions of the spiritual, the academic and the social; and certainly because of the emphasis of proper balance in these three areas we can witness the power and blessings of God on the College and on everyone who shares in her ministry. Perhaps even more appropriate for Vennard College are the terms E Pluribus Unum and Annuet Coeptis.

First Lady of Vennard College

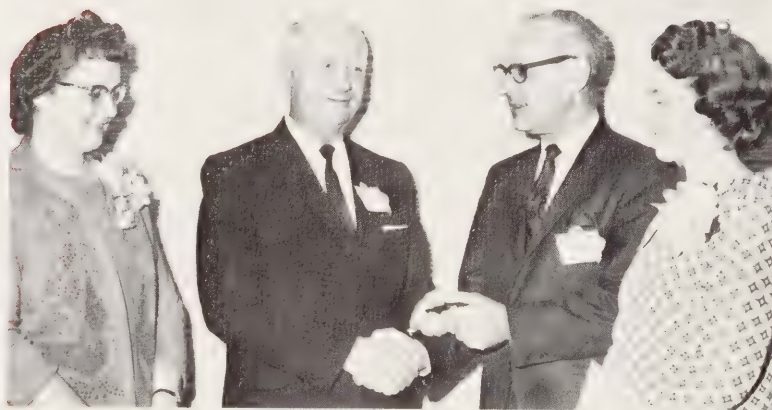

"Annuit Coeptis" (God has favored our undertakings) is well applied at Vennard College and in the life and work of the dedicatee also, for it is a motto which expresses the Matthew 7:16 passage "Ye shall know them by their fruits." Although the branch supplies the steady support for the fruit, its work often goes unnoticed; yet it remains securely attached to its life-giving source, continually working for the end result, a product which will be of service to the vineyard master. Already you have made the correlation between the branch and the life of Mrs. Merne A. Harris.

She has watched the spiritual growth of her husband, her family, the college students and dozens of young pre-schoolers as she has labored faithfully behind the scenes, praying continually that the Lord would mold them and make them useful in His kingdom. She has worked since 1962 teaching nursery and pre-schoolers and has supervised the planning of our new and beautiful Kiddie Kollege. It would seem that her dreams have come true as she has now taken her place as director of this new endeavor, and more than that, she stands with her husband, supporting and encouraging him as he faces the challenges and responsibilities of his office.

For her faithfulness we dedicate the 1969 Vision to Mrs. Merne A. Harris, First Lady of Vennard College.

Dedicatee

The Kiddie Kollege was officially dedicated, December 4, 1968, as Mr. Julius Bruner, Chairman of the Development Committee, presented the keys for the building to President Dr. Merne A. Harris.

Kiddie Kollege Dedicated 1968

The Ritual of Dedication:

Leader: Our help is in the name of the Lord,
Who made heaven and earth.

People: Except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain that build it.

Leader: Establish thou the work of our hands upon us, yea, the work of our hands establish it.

People: Blessed be the name of the Lord from this time forth, and for evermore.

Leader: Whatsoever things were written afore-time were written for our learning.
Blessed are they that hear the word of God and keep it.

People: We dedicate this building to the knowledge of the Word of God, that little children may be informed by the Word of the Lord.

Leader: Thy word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path.

People: We dedicate this building to the recreation of mind and body.

Leader: Thou wilt show me the path of life, in thy presence is fulness of joy, at thy right hand there are pleasures forever-more.

People: We dedicate this building to those tasks and aims of the Christian life which will prepare children to respond to the demands of World Missions, Christian citizenship and Christian discipleship.

Leader: Suffer the little children to come unto me and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven.

People: We dedicate this building to the cause of little children that they might learn of the Savior and follow Him.

From many ways of life, Christian men and women have been drawn together and united in one cause, that of preparing lives through education, to live and serve Christ. The uniting of many different interests and many talents have formed the leadership of Vennard College.

Vennardians,

This is a day of tumult. Today is a day when there are too many unanswered questions—questions that are often verbalized by the beatnik, the far left; questions that are often unspoken by the “in” group or the far right. Why am I here? What is the meaning of life? What is Vietnam all about? Why don’t we have peace—at any price?

To help find the answers for these, and for many other questions, you have come to Vennard. Perhaps the specific question has not been answered for you immediately. More often, you have probably had to wait to figure it out for yourself. However, here at Vennard we have tried to establish some criteria in order to give you a basis for evaluating your own answers. These criteria have been founded upon certain absolutes which have been central in the Vennard philosophy of education since its beginning.

The primacy of the Word of God. This becomes the rule by which we measure all else. The Word of God is not on trial. Where life’s philosophies do not measure up to the Word, we need to change our philosophies.

A Christian world view that sees the entire world as under the care and dominion of an all-wise Heavenly Father; all men as in need of a Saviour; and the blood of Christ sufficient to save all men from all sin.

The inherent worth of every man. There is in the heart of man that which will respond to the ministry of the Holy Spirit.

Build well upon these basic principles and you will carry with you life goals and life values that will enable you to meet each crisis as it comes.

Sabbatical Studies in the Holy Land

Professor Neva F. Miller, shown here with “curios” from the Holy Land, was granted a Sabbatical leave during the 1967-68 Academic year for study and travel in the Middle East and Europe. She pursued her graduate studies at the American Institute of Holy Land Studies, located on Mt. Zion in Zerusalem, Israel. In a letter home she wrote: “I find that I am living more deeply than ever into the experiences of these wonderful days, more than I had dared to hope. How the days unfold with new things to be seen and learned and felt, especially felt. . . . My experiences go in three directions—toward the People, the Land, and the Book. One could concentrate wholly and busily on any one phase, but I am finding a rewarding balance, with lots of activity in each direction. And I have been learning at different levels . . . the tourist level, with its over-all view and new sensations; the field trip level, getting into an Israeli open truck and going to all sorts of places all over the country in an intensive study of geography and archaeology and related history. Going with a government team doing archeological surveys is a deeper level still. Below that is our own walking trips about Jerusalem and its surroundings of steep hills and deep valleys and ravines. It is THE way to go. Deeper down still are the personal pilgrimages we make. I am learning some things about worship in this land dedicated to pilgrimages through all these centuries, for on pilgrimages one goes not only to see, but to feel and worship. All of this makes it “the Lord’s plus” all the way!”

I Chronicles 28:9 gives a key for effective Christian service, "serve him with a perfect heart and with a willing mind." Christian service assignments have a special importance at Vennard College as the students unite the many lessons and abilities for the one purpose of reaching men with the Gospel.

The music ministry of Vennard College is richly enhanced by the Vennard Choir. The secret of the Choir's success comes not only in the area of technical mastery but in the depth of spiritual quality also. The choir has a twofold reason for presenting a dynamic concert, first to present a vision of the personal Lord of which they sing and secondly that musically they might adequately give artistic expression to that which is within their hearts.

Director: Professor B. Bellus

One of the highlights of the 1968 was the presentation of "I have Chosen Thee," an anthem composed especially for the Inauguration of Dr. M. A. Harris.

VENNARD COLLEGE CHAMBER SINGERS—
1967-68

Eight young people under the direction of professor Benjamin Bellus concluded a year of deputation ministry including the school year and 10 weeks of the summer. Nearly 20,000 miles were traveled, 35 states were visited, and over 200 concerts were sung during this period, each presenting a distinctive opportunity to not only represent the college, but to witness for Christ. The school year period included a musical ministry to over 10 civic and service clubs, community business men, and many week-end ventures to places such as Tennessee, Missouri, Illinois, northern Iowa, and others. The summer period included a musical ministry in youth camps, camp meetings, alumni meetings, and in churches of many different denominations as far north as North Dakota, as far west as California, as far south as Texas, as far East as New York. Earl Stine travelled with the group for the last part of the summer. The deputation work was productive in the outreach of Vennard College and in the acquisition of many prospective students for the college.

SINGING for our LORD

The musical ministry of Vennard is progressive in outreach, evangelistic in message, and a blessing to those performing and those listening. The Trio has been an integral part of this ministry, and like the soloists, are sent out regularly to sing for the glory of God.

Trio: Blenda Millhouse, second soprano; Carol Gruver, alto; Cynthia Wilkinson, soprano; Nancy Wright, pianist.

Whatever talent one may have Vennard College will find it and use it in some way for the Lord's work. Musk offers a wide variety of opportunities for service.

Responsibility and leadership are two of the many qualities which do not always come from a classroom, but often come through the many opportunities within the organizations at Vennard. All the organizations have in view the one basic goal of service. This service outreach of the organizations is often comparable to the Christian Service Department but is an on-campus benefit to everyone. Organizations is just another way Vennard assists the student and the community in which we live.

Circle K

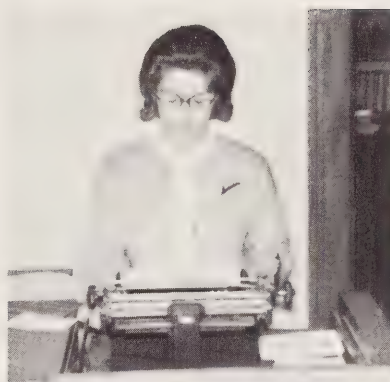

Circle K, under the sponsorship of Kiwanis, is an organization at Vennard College that has the opportunity to contribute to our surrounding community.

With the opportunity to serve school and community we would not overlook the greatest service of all in serving the Lord by letting our Christian witness enter into the community.

The club motto "Serve with purpose" is appropriate as it serves the Lord and the people around them.

If it were possible to delve into the future there might be seen the results and benefits of the many exciting, unusual and always memorable activities which every Vennard student has experienced, which in some way has influenced his life.

For every type of personality there are activities—some intellectual, some physical, some social and some that are just plain funny; and yet in all these there is a basic quality which makes every experience and activity unique, and that is the spiritual enrichment. To young Christian men and women sharing socially the fun and fellowship which the world cannot know, Vennard College offers a social life with a bonus.

Activities

President's Tea

An opportunity was shared for new students to meet the President, Deans, and Student Officers at the first annual Presidents' Tea. Faculty ladies officiated at the tea table, while Mr. and Mrs. Dale Barrett provided background music.

Convocation

A time of deep honesty and soul searching before God as the Word of Life was laid open to our thirsty hearts.

The speaker, Dr. Eldon Fuhrman, is a graduate of John Fletcher College, and is now Professor of Theology at Western Evangelical Seminary. Meaningful to each of us, his statement:

"Believe your beliefs and doubt your doubts, but don't believe your doubts and doubt your beliefs."

One of the opportunities which Vennard provided in cooperation with several missionary organizations is the Summer Internship Program. Under this program students interested in missions can have the experience of serving on a mission field for several weeks during the summer. Every opportunity of this type is a great experience for the student to learn the whys and hows of missions and to know the Lord's Will for their missionary career.

Another opportunity which comes to Vennard students in the Social Service Field is that of serving in this area for a summer's experience in correlation with their field of study and preparation.

Vennard College will never lose its missionary emphasis as long as there is a continual flow of students who have a missionary vision on their hearts. Among those students who are most missionary minded are the children of missionaries now in the work and students from foreign lands who have a burden for their home country.

Missionary Prayer League Convention 1969

A MISSIONARY CRY

A hundred thousand souls a day,
Are passing one by one away,
In Christless guilt and gloom.
Without one ray of hope or light,
With future dark as endless night
They're passing to their doom,
They're passing to their doom.
They're passing, passing fast away,
In thousands day by day,
They're passing to their doom,
They're passing to their doom.

MR. and MRS. IVAN CARROLL

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll have served with the World Gospel Mission since 1939 in India. In earlier years both taught at the mission's South India Bible Institute. During the past 16 years, they have worked largely among Indian national workers, teaching and preaching in the Kanarese language, mainly among Hindus and some Muslims. Mr. Carroll's burden has been to get the gospel to the vastly unevangelized villages where most of India's people dwell, by organized training and evangelism camps where converts could be strengthened. Mrs. Carroll is active in literature work and was mission treasurer and assisted in camps for village women converts.

MR. and MRS. ORVILLE WOLFF

Rev. Wolff pastored in South Dakota before going to Brazil under the Oriental Missionary Society. His primary emphasis is the training of young people at the Londrina Bible Seminary where he has taught Bible and has directed the evangelistic ministries in churches, on street corners, in jails and on the OMS broadcast, "Waves of Peace". He has directed Bible Correspondence studies in connection with the radio outreach. In addition to this, he pastored a nearby church. Mrs. Wolff is an excellent pianist and assists her husband in this capacity.

MINISTERS CONFERENCE

Special speakers for this conference were Commissioner Samuel Hapburn, National Commander of the Salvation Army, and Dr. J. Barton Payne, a professor at Wheaton College. Commissioner Hapburn shared the practical aspects of Christian Service, while Dr. Payne gave the importance of preaching as given in the Old Testament.

FOWLER LECTURES

Bishop Arthur M. Climenhaga, Bishop of the Brethren in Christ Church, was guest speaker for the Fowler Lectures. His extensive education and experience as a Bible teacher, lecturer, and evangelist made him a very capable speaker for these series of lectures.

Freshman-Senior Reception 1968

One of the many challenges the seniors receive before graduation is presented by the freshman class at Freshman—Senior Reception. This year's challenge was based on the need for the Christian to become involved in the fight against sin and to witness to the relevancy of the Gospel in today's world.

Intramural Sports

To increase school spirit the administration decided to have intramural sports activities between the individual classes. This program was designed to encourage school and class unity and spirit and provide opportunity for the class to compete for awards. Which class will win? The decision remains a secret until the end of the year.

Many times in an underclassman's life the way seems dark and clouded, the pressures of college life and doubts and questions regarding future plans sometimes make it hard for one to see how God will favor one's undertakings. In these times it is a comfort and great encouragement to know that Romans 8:28, "And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them that are the called according to his purpose," is true in everyone's life as long as there is that constant personal contact between God and him.

A Message to my young friends at Vennard College
"SUCCESS"

Definition: The ability to get out of life what you want without interfering with the rights and privileges of other people.

Where is it?: Within you and no other place.

Formula for getting Success for you.

1. Take God as your Partner in everything and everywhere.
2. A Definite Purpose: Exactly what are you going to do with your life, remember it is yours.
3. Self Confidence: Believe sincerely and you can.
4. Initiative: Do things without being told.
5. Imagination: Dream and work for your Definite Purpose.
6. Enthusiasm: Be Happy and Aggressive about your life's work. Enthusiasm is the Main Spring of the Soul.
7. Self Control: Don't ever lose your head or your temper. "He that Controls himself, Controls the Situation".
8. Do More than you are paid for: The Joy of life is in doing More, not in doing just enough.
9. Pleasing Personality: The thing that Costs the least and does the most is just a friendly, sincere smile.
10. Habit of Saving: A Part of all you earn is yours to keep. Debt is a merciless habit, it wrecks and ruins.
11. Be an Accurate Thinker: Always what is right not who is right, even if you yourself are involved. Be ready and anxious to admit when you are wrong.
12. Concentration: Think, Work, and Study on one thing at a time and do it well.
13. Cooperation: Work with those of like mind in a spirit of harmony.
14. Failure: Is not defeat, Profit by it but don't be afraid of it.
15. Tolerance: Let others have the right of their own opinion and respect that Privilege.
16. Golden Rule: Don't talk it, PRACTICE IT.

Julius C. Bruner

CLASS OF 1969

You are joining a select group of people—Vennard College alumni. We are proud of our alumni and their achievements and dedication to the cause of Jesus Christ. Over 80% of the alumni of Vennard are engaged in religious occupations. This is the reason for our existence.

This is the Vennard's Decisive Decade for progress in student and faculty growth and quality as well as provision of better facilities for learning and teaching. We need to have you remain informed as to this progress so that you might give needed support. Monetary support is needed—to be sure—but equally as important is your prayer support and interesting prospective students.

We are confident that you will continue to carry high the banners of Christ to all the world and will be an honor to Vennard College.

VENNARD COLLEGE HYMN

K. H. W.

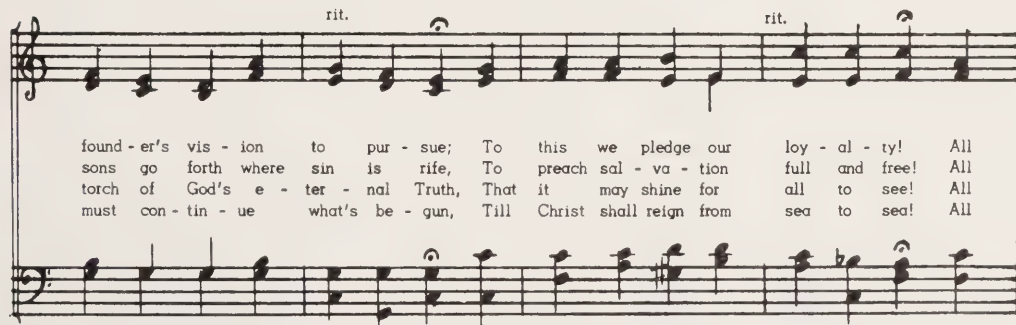

Kenneth H. Wells

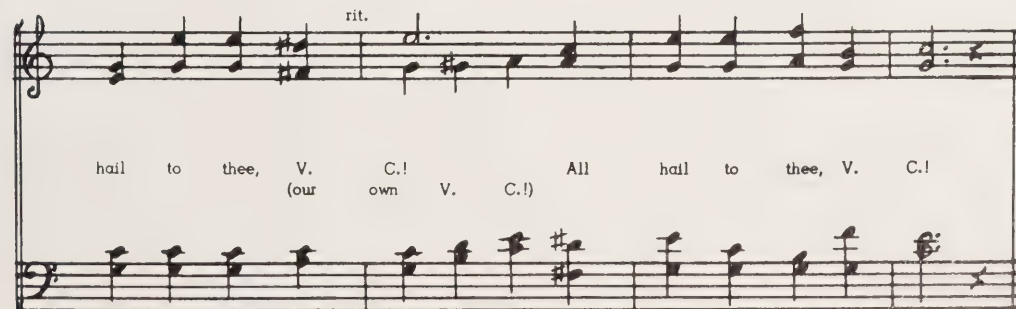

1. Hail, Ven-nard Col-lege! The school of Chris-tian cul-ture; Hail, Ven-nard
 2. Hail, Ven-nard Col-lege! Where God's own Word is hon-ored; Hail, Ven-nard
 3. Hail, Ven-nard Col-lege! The whole world is her par-ish; Hail, Ven-nard
 4. Hail, Ven-nard Col-lege! "The vine of God's own plant-ing"; Hail, Ven-nard

Col-lege! The place we all hold dear. Her con-stant goal we keep in view, Her Col-lege! Where Christ is Lord and King. In pur-i-ty of "heart and life," Her Col-lege! Her mis-sion has no bounds. She lights a torch for eag-er youth—The Col-lege! "Be-hold what God hath wrought." The task is great, but still not done, We found-er's vis-ion to pur-sue; To this we pledge our loy-al-ty! All sons go forth where sin is rife, To preach sal-va-tion full and free! All torch of God's e-ter-nal Truth, That it may shine for all to see! All must con-tin-ue what's be-gun, Till Christ shall reign from sea to sea! All hail to thee, V. C.! All hail to thee, V. C.!

 (our own V. C.!) C.!

The pendulum has swept across the minute segment of eternity called Vennard College 1968-69 and erased the physical, the temporal and the conscious. What remains is the spiritual and the intellectual, within the heart and minds of those who have been enfolded in the family's increasingly large circle of friends.

As the pendulum continues to swing over the years, many memories will grow dim and then you will seek some remembrance and you will find in the bottom of some old trunk, worn and dusty, your '69 Vision' and for a time the activities will flood your thoughts and an added joy will be yours.

While you read your Vision, remember the long hours of labor which have made it possible. The Vision staff has worked hard to learn new methods, procedures and designs, placing upon them added responsibility and pressures to the already overcrowded schedule of college life. To the staff I am deeply grateful for their help and patience. I am also grateful for our advisor, Kay Bishop, her cheerfulness has been a continual encouragement.

Out of many hours, ideas, prayers and even tears comes one 1969 Vision, speaking for the staff and myself I can say that our prayer is that God will favor our undertakings.
